Temporary closure of retail shopping centres

Further to its announcement dated 26 March 2020, Arricano announces that the Ukrainian central government has extended the temporary restrictions of customer access to Ukrainian retail shopping centres.

Each of Arricano's five shopping centres is affected by the quarantine introduced to combat the COVID-19 pandemic. However, hypermarkets, pharmacies and some other stores located in the shopping centres remain open for business. Further announcements will be made by the Company in due course when the situation changes.
